Referencing ...

is recording information about where you find your information. A list of sources is called a bibliography. A list of sources that you have cited or referred to is a reference list. Both of these are included at the end of your work.

Referencing a ...

Newspaper/Magazine

Harvard style

Example:

When referencing a journal article, include the following;

1. Author’s surname (comma) initials (full stop)
2. Year (comma)
3. Title of article ‘single quotes’ (comma)
4. Title of newspaper (in italics) (comma)
5. Date of publication (comma)
6. Page number of article (full stop)